

AXIS DICTATORS HOLD SECRET MEETING

Meandering Along the Main Stem

By WASH FAYETTE

The boys at the city fire department have a new name for assistant fire chief, Emil (Rusty) Wilson, veteran fireman.

They are calling him "Boy Scout," and when I heard the name applied, I picked up my ears to learn the reason, and here it is:

Fireman Vaiden Long and Rusty were out along Deer Creek fishing one night recently. The night was cold and they decided a little fire would be some help in keeping warm.

Vaiden had purchased a new hand ax (notice I did not spell it axe) which had a heavy leather sheath over the blade to protect the ax and guard against the sharp bit doing damage.

Rusty borrowed the ax, and in the darkness, did not know that the leather sheath was over the ax, so he started chopping wood, and after much effort, informed Vaiden that the ax would not cut. Vaiden took a look at the ax and the leather covering was nearly ruined, as the blade had cut through the leather and rivets which held it in place, hence the "Boy Scout" title for Rusty.

One of the largest, if not the largest, red haw or hawthorne tree in Fayette County is standing in the back yard of Mrs. Austin F. Hopkins, Washington Avenue, and right now it is a real joy to look upon.

The big tree, which has been there for approximately 50 years, stands in front of the garage, and when it was built over 20 years ago, it was constructed so that it would not interfere with the big hawthorne tree.

At present the tree is a mass of fragrant white bloom and has attracted much attention. It has a spread of more than 40 feet and had the lower branches not been trimmed, would easily have a spread of over 50 feet.

Mike Liscandro, local bass catcher extraordinary, who holds more than one record for the number and size of bass landed in the waters of Fayette County, has a rival in the sport.

He is Bob Pence, of South Solon, who was fishing in the East Fork of Paint Creek at the State road bridge recently, and landed a big mouth bass that weighed 4.5 pounds—one of the finest bass ever taken from East Fork. He also landed a pair of small mouth bass that averaged 4.0 pounds. That 4.5 pounder is the biggest bass I have ever heard of coming from East Fork.

Some of you folks who, like myself, drove along much of the Ohio River following the most disastrous flood in history during January a few years ago and saw the great havoc created by the roaring waters, can appreciate this little note out of Ripley:

"Taking his cue from Noah, N. L. Germann, Ripley grocer, has built a flood barge for use in the next flood, and has it stored where he can reach it in short order."

Did you ever see a wild duck's nest?

I know most of you have not. I have seen but one—years ago.

Deputy Sheriff Otto Reno, while fishing along Deer Creek a few evenings ago, found a wild duck's nest with 11 greenish eggs, as large as small hen eggs, near the banks of the stream.

The nest was scooped out of the earth near the crest of roots and dirt where a tree had been uprooted—high above flood stage and away from most of the natural enemies of the wild duck.

A few days ago, a cat owned by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hermes, 1128 North North Street, carried three young rabbits to the Hermes home, and carefully set them down in a box which is her home.

The cat proceeded to mother the kittens, and Mrs. Hermes took up the task of feeding them with a medicine dropper.

The cat watched the feeding proceedings, and apparently objected to this, for all of the kittens disappeared, and there was reason to believe that she had carried them off to some other place where they could not be disturbed.

Sen. Tydings Says: 'Save Now
Or Rue the Day Before This Situation Is Over'

By JOHN W. HENDERSON

WASHINGTON, May 1.—(AP)—Fresh from a preliminary victory, Senate economy advocates sought a new "drop-in-the-bucket" cut today in the Independent Offices Appropriation bill—the year's biggest supply bill for primarily non-defense agencies.

Despite some protests, the Senate yesterday supported its appropriations committee in cutting $12,314,513 from the funds of various governmental departments for the fiscal year starting July 1, the principal slash being in travel expense allowances for a dozen agencies.

Even though the reductions were partly offset by certain committee-recommended increases, the chamber demonstrated a willingness to cut non-defense spending, once on a 53 to 20 record vote. During the debate Senator Tydings (D., Md.) demanded that the Senate "save money now, or you are going to

NEW YORK BLACKOUT CALLED GREAT SHOW

Great White Way Is Dark
For 20-minute Test

NEW YORK, May 1.—(AP)—Black magic wrought a miracle on Broadway last night.

On the stroke of 9:30 o'clock (EWT) the greatest man-made well of light in the world was plunged into the gloominess of a country lane at midnight. The test blackout lasted 20 minutes.

Police Commissioner Valentine termed the test "the greatest show New York has ever had," Mayor F. H. LaGuardia said "I think it was very good," and the consensus among both police and civilian defense officials was that it was at least 95 percent effective.

Nazis Cry Quits When They Feel Attack from Air

LONDON, May 1.—(AP)—The London Daily Mail hinted that Germany was seeking to cry quits on aerial warfare with England, climaxing thunderous blows by RAF warplanes against Nazi-dominated Europe.

The Daily Mail quoted a Berlin dispatch to the Swiss newspaper, Journal De Geneve as saying:

"It is semi-officially stated here that Germany will call off the bombing of English towns if the RAF will change its methods of bombing German cities."

"The present bombing duel is highly unpopular with the German people," the dispatch added.

But authoritative British quarters, commenting on the purported offer, declared "we are going after those blighters wherever they are, and that is final."

British Home Minister Herbert Morrison referred scornfully to "the cry of German propagandists that it is up to us to call off our raids to save ourselves."

Factory in Belgium Conquered by Nazis Destroyed By Blast

By WILLIAM J. HUMPHREYS

LONDON, May 1.—(AP)—A chemical factory at Tessenderloo, in the new industrial district of northern Belgium—a particular zone of activity for the anti-German "white brigade" of the conquered Belgians—has been destroyed in an explosion which, according to the German radio, killed 250 persons and injured about 1,000.

Berlin belatedly relayed an announcement today of the Nazi-dominated Belgian government that not only the plant but a technical school and a number of nearby houses were destroyed or severely damaged by the blast two days ago. No cause was given.

The announcement emphasized that the factory produced "artificial fertilizers of various kinds and washing preparations for the Belgian market only."

The free Belgian news agency, identifying the factory, asserted it

Schenck also was placed on probation for three years.

Japs Massing Fleet in South Pacific As Threat To U. S.-Australia Supply Line

(By the Associated Press)

Escaping a Japanese entrapment sweep, British troops guarding the right flank of the Allied line in Burma have fallen back 80 miles to a new defense sector only 30 miles below Mandalay.

Imperilled by the Japanese thrust to Lashio, 130 miles northeast of Mandalay, the British were said today to have withdrawn to protect the overland route to India.

While the crisis in Burma remained acute, with the Japanese invaders now standing at the gateway to China astraddle the Burma Road, a Chinese announcement declared the fall of Lashio would not halt the flow of Chinese reinforcements for the continued defense of orth Burma.

Moreover, the Chinese said, alternative supply routes from India to China are already in working order.

Chinese dispatches said Lashio, captured by Japanese mechanized columns Wednesday, had been reduced to rubble by Japanese bombing assaults and the Allies' scorched earth policy.

Other developments in the Far Pacific theater included:

1. Japanese warships and troop transports, reported massing among the Marshall Islands in the South Central Pacific, stirred speculation that the Mikado's sea-borne invaders might be preparing a major thrust against the American supply line to Australia.

The Marshall Islands are within 1,500 miles of New Caledonia, where American troops are bolstering Free French defense of the island, about the same distance from American Samoa, and 2,100 miles from Hawaii.

Because of this strategic location, experts said, the Japs could be able to move in any of three main directions or they could try a series of feints in an effort to strike American strength before striking with full force.

Indications of Japanese strategy were given in dispatches from Australia recently saying that the enemy was gathering ships and men in the mandated islands area. These reports were linked here with the disappearance of powerful Japanese naval units from the Bay of Bengal, off India, about a week ago.

Informed quarters suggested that those units, having carried

A fast-moving Japanese spearhead, thrusting forward to a point just south of Lashio, is in a position to cut the famed Burma road, China's last existing lifeline to the outside world. ## CURB ON ITALY MAY HAVE BEEN MAIN PURPOSE

Hitler Also May Be Trying To Tie Mussolini Up for Offense in Russia

UNITY RESTATED BY NAZIS

Meanwhile, Stalin Reveals
Germany's Plight in Statement to Russia

By ROGER D. GREENE

(By the Associated Press)
Adolf Hitler and Benito Mussolini, whose meetings in the past have frequently signalled the approach of momentous events, met in a two-day conference ending yesterday at Salzburg, Austria, it was announced officially today.

In the usual stereotyped form, a German communique said the Axis dictators met "in a spirit of close friendship and the indissoluble brotherhood-in-arms of their nations."

Three Possibilities
Allied conjecture, however, centered on the possibility that these points were discussed:

1. Last-minute decisions on the heralded German grand offensive against Russia.

2. Reports of smoldering revolt and war-weariness in Italy.

3. A possible joint German-Italian "final offer" of peace, on Axis terms, to the Allies.

Informed British quarters declared the purpose of the Salzburg conference obviously was to keep Mussolini in line.

"Hitler must keep both ends of the Axis moving in the same direction," these quarters said, "and to do this he must give Mussolini a pep talk."

First Meeting

It was the first meeting of the Fuehrer and Il Duce since their countries went to war against the United States last December. The official announcement said:

"The meeting resulted in a perfect accord of views on the situation created by the overwhelming victories of the tripartite powers and on the further conduct of the war by the two nations in both political and military spheres."

There was no mention of Japan, the third member of the Rome-Berlin-Tokyo bloc, having been represented at the meeting.

While the communique extolled

AUSTRALIA ALL SET FOR ATTACK BY JAPS

Allied Forces Being Built Up
MacArthur Says

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Australia, May 1.—(AP)—General Sir Thomas Blamey, Allied land commander under General Douglas MacArthur, warned today of the Japanese menace to Allied outposts but declared the Allies were building up their forces even as the Japanese reinforce their positions in the islands above Australia.

Speaking in his first press conference since his appointment as commander of the land forces in the southwest Pacific, General Blamey reported signs of increased Japanese activity which he said might indicate the foe is preparing for an attempt to seize Allied outposts or cut the supply line from the United States.

SMALL FREIGHTER SINKS WITHIN FIVE MINUTES

LEWES, Del., May 1.—(AP)—

Blasted by a single submarine torpedo, a small freighter sank within five minutes off the Atlantic coast Tuesday and apparently carried six men to their deaths, the fourth naval district announced today.

Thirty-seven of the crew, including the master, were rescued by a navy craft after drifting two hours in a lifeboat. The survivors were landed here.

Charge of Hog Production Shortage Branded Premature If Not False

By FRANKLIN MULLIN

CHICAGO, May 1.—(AP)—Accusations floating about the farm belt that the nation's mother hogs—sows, to be technical—are war slackers were branded premature if not false by veteran livestock men today.

If there are any unpatriotic sows in the corn-belt, where a record breaking 1942 spring pig crop is awaited, livestock men want to refrain from passing judgment until all returns are in.

For the war effort hog farmers have been called upon to raise an unusually large crop of pigs this spring. Pork and lard, to be turned out from the packing plants next fall and winter, are needed badly at home and among the United Nations everywhere.

Preliminary reports indicated, however, that all is not progressing as well as had been hoped for in some localities. It was suggested hog producers might be falling short of spring goals in certain areas.

However, market experts believe that when the full 1942 birth rate is known, sows will stand vindicated. They believe the government will be able to achieve its goal of 83,000,000 hogs slaughtered in 1942, compared with 72,500,000 in 1941.

This new spring crop of baby pigs is being coddled as never before in the livestock belt because hog prices are high

YANKS STILL FIGHT ON ISLAND OF LUZON

Japs Put Out Report About
Mopping Them Up

TOKYO (From Japanese Broadcasts), May 1.—(AP)—Domei reported today in a dispatch from the Philippines that "Japanese forces mopping up remaining enemy resistance on the island of Luzon stormed and occupied key positions on Mount Pinatubo on April 29."

(This indicates that there still are small centers of American-Filipino resistance on Luzon even though the Bataan Peninsula has been overrun.)

(Mount Pinatubo, little more than a mile high, is in Zambales province about 25 miles north of Bataan.)

Domei, quoting "field dispatches" said "the smashing Japanese assault compelled the enemy to flee in wild disorder."

'LAST SUPREME EFFORT' DEMANDED OF GERMANS

BERLIN (From German Broadcasts), May 1.—(AP)—Robert Ley, Adolf Hitler's lieutenant for labor affairs, appealed to the workers of Germany in a May Day message to make "a last supreme effort for victory."

May Day was a regular working day in Germany. Hanging out flags or bunting was forbidden.

TOWNS ENDANGERED BY FOREST FIRES

CITY CLAN-UP GETS UNDERWAY EARLY FRIDAY

Proclamation Is Issued by City Manager Urging Cooperation

The citywide clean-up campaign got underway in Washington C. H. Friday morning with two side objectives—salvage of scrap iron, rubber and paper for the war effort and beautification through the planting of shrubbery.

The city manager, Edwin Ducey, started off the annual spring face-lifting of the city with a proclamation:

"To the Citizens of the City of Washington, Greetings:

"WHEREAS a City-wide Clean-up, Fix-up and Plant-up Campaign will result in many advantages to our Citizens and our Country,

"In reclaiming many articles which are vitally necessary for the successful prosecution of the war:

"In furthering fire prevention, thereby saving many homes and buildings which cannot under present conditions be rebuilt;

"In safeguarding health and safety;

"In stimulating city pride and

"In making our homes and city more beautiful;

"NOW THEREFORE, Be it known that the days of May 1 to May 16, are officially set aside for a Citywide, Clean-up, Fix-up, and Plant-up Campaign in Washington Court House. In this worthy movement of Reclamation, Cleaning, Repairing, Planting and General Rehabilitation, we pledge the complete support of the City Government, and particularly of the Department of Streets, and respectfully urge all Citizens and Business Organizations to do their part in making and keeping our Community

"Clean . . . Healthy . . . safe and Beautiful."

This year's campaign is in charge of the very active and recently organized Junior Civic Council, under the supervision of the city recreation department headed by Mrs. Tom Bush.

School children are the backbone of the campaign and the sparkplug of the activities under this new plan. Through them, the objectives have been told and retold in almost every home in the city.

The Garden Club and the League of Women Voters have given the campaign their moral support and a pledge to help "in any way we can." The Garden Club has made arrangements for supplying the shrubbery for those who want it. There is no charge for the plants which are available in a substantial variety. Lilacs, however, are the foundation of the beautification scheme.

The actual work of collecting the refuse from the homes will not get started until next week, it was said. In the meantime, householders are expected to go through their homes and yards and pile up everything that is to be discarded in the alley. The city is supplying the trucks for gathering it up. The Civic Council has made arrangements for sorting it for salvage that can be used in war production.

MERCURY THURSDAY WAS UNUSUALLY HIGH

With a peak temperature of 86 degrees, Thursday proved to be one of the hottest late April days recorded here in a great many years.

Not only was the day unusually hot, but at no time during the night did the mercury drop below 58 degrees, and most of the time it was several degrees higher.

A year ago 82 and 46 were the extremes.

CIVIL SERVICE TESTS WILL BE CONDUCTED HERE

Positions Open to Junior Typists and Stenographers At Wright Field

Typists and stenographers will have an opportunity to get jobs at Wright Field near Dayton if they can pass the Civil Service tests, it was revealed by Charles Duntun, manager of the United States Employment Service office here, when he announced that examinations would be held at the high school building here starting at 9:30 A. M. Saturday.

Duntun said a representative of the Civil Service Commission would come here to conduct the examination for junior typists and stenographers.

The junior typists, he said, would be started at a salary of $1,260 per year. They must be able to type at the minimum rate of 35 words per minute.

The stenographers, who must be able to take at least 80 words per minute in shorthand dictation, start at a salary of $1,440 per year, Duntun said.

The USES manager here added, however, that these employees at Wright Field have been getting in an average of eight hours a week overtime. They are paid at the rate of time-and-a-half for overtime work.

Duntun said he had been advised that appointments for all who passed the examinations would be made "immediately."

SECRET MEETING HELD BY AXIS DICTATORS; STALIN IS DEFIANT

past "overwhelming victories" by the Axis, Russia's Premier Joseph Stalin painted a contrasting picture of the present, declaring in a May Day manifesto:

"War has brought to the German people great disappointment, millions of human lives sacrificed, hunger and impoverishment. Human reserves are running out. Oil is running out. Raw materials are running out."

He said Russia was fighting simply "a war of liberation, a just war."

No Aggressive Aims

Stalin declared "we have no such aims as the capture of other countries or enslaving of other peoples," but added that the only way to win the war was to smash the invaders to the last man if they did not surrender.

"We must do this at any cost," he stated.

His message was carried to all Russians by billboards, newspapers, radio and a nationwide network of loudspeakers that drowned out the hum of machinery in flag-draped factories.

New Red Successes

As he spoke, military reports told of new Soviet successes.

Besides the announced slaughter of 1,300 Germans on the central and Kalinin fronts, extensive guerrilla activities in the Crimea were declared to have cost the Germans and Rumanians 800 dead. Twenty-five Rumanians joined the guerrillas in attacking a food depot, Crimean reports said. The partisans were reported to well organized they now were publishing a paper, "The Crimean Guerrilla."

"The peoples of all freedom-loving countries are looking to the Soviet Union as a force which is capable of saving the world from the Hitlerite plague," Stalin went on.

Allied Unity Affirmed

States of America, with whom we are connected by ties of unity and friendship, and who are giving our country more and more military assistance against the Fascist invaders."

Soviet thrusts upset the Germans' hope to use winter for a respite, forced them to expend reserves meant for spring and summer operations and shattered "that idle talk about the invincibility of the German army," Stalin said.

Stalin issued a five-point memorandum charging all fighting men to master their weapons and strategic duties and urged guerrillas to fight on.

Stalin declared that Russia, now receiving more and more military supplies from the United States and Britain, would smash Hitler's invasion forces on a surrender-or-death basis to make 1942 "a year of final defeat of the German Fascist armies."

Other major developments in the European war theater included:

1. In German-occupied Belgium, 250 persons were killed and 1,000 wounded in a chemical factory explosion at Tessenderloo, 30 miles southeast of Antwerp. The Free Belgian News Agency in London reported a series of explosions and fires had caused heavy damage to factories and mines in Belgium during the past few months.

The news agency said that bottles of inflammable liquids had been found at the scene of numerous fires—indicating the handiwork of Belgian patriots—and that the Germans blamed the Belgian "White Brigade," a secret armed organization, seven of whose members were sentenced to death a week ago.

2. In aerial warfare, Britain's great "Help Russia" offensive tapered off to reconnaissance flights overnight after eight straight nights of tempestuous blows at German war-nerve centers.

Eleven Nazi bombers were reported shot down over England and France.

German night raiders heavily attacked the port of Sunderland (pop. 2,000,000), 260 miles north of London, inflicting some casualties.

3. On the Russian front, Hitler's field headquarters reported that tank-led Soviet attacks were beaten off and declared that "local offensive operations straightened our lines."

The Nazi lines were under the heaviest pressure in four key sectors—around Staraya Russa, 130 miles south of Leningrad; near Smolensk, some 200 miles west of Moscow; at Orel, 200 miles south of Moscow; and at Kursk, 80 miles below Orel.

A Russian army officer, Maj. Gen. M. Zakharov declared that relentless Soviet attacks on the central (Moscow) front had

WHS STUDENTS TO TAKE STATE TEST SATURDAY

Scholarship Team Is Given Final Instructions on Thursday

Thirty-eight Washington C. H. High School students will go to Columbus Saturday to take tests at Ohio State University. These tests determine the rating of the school along the lines of scholarship and also tell the students where they stand in the district.

Six of the total number are representing the school in the commercial subjects, typing, shorthand I and shorthand II, and the rest of them are going in academic subjects. These include biology, chemistry, general science, physics, algebra, plane geometry, American history, world history, senior social studies, Latin I, Latin II, French II, Spanish I, English 9, English 10, English 11 and English 12.

The group will leave the high school building at 7 A. M. Saturday in a school bus and private cars and will return home about 6:30 P. M. after the results of the contest have been announced.

The scholarship team was given its instructions Thursday afternoon by Principal W. F. Rettig.

wrecked Hitler's plans for a spring offensive, but he warned that the Germans were moving up reserves for an attempt at counteraction.

Soviet front-line dispatches noted that the Germans were now attacking with armored units, indicating the slush and mud that has bogged the long battleline for weeks was beginning to dry out.

NO LEGION PARADE HELD THIS YEAR—IT'S THE WAR

INDIANAPOLIS, May 1.—(P)—The big parade that has highlighted every American Legion Convention since the World War Veterans' organization was formed 23 years ago has been dropped because of the war.

This year's convention will be a sober affair, strictly business and lacking even the usual music contests. Instead of lasting a week, it will be finished in three days.

HOME CANNING DEMONSTRATION PLANNED HERE

Civilian Defense Council Is Sponsoring Program as Patriotic Move

To stimulate home canning for home consumption this winter as a part of the "Food for Victory" program, the Fayette County Civilian Defense Council's nutrition committee, headed by Mrs. C. L. Ford, Thursday afternoon laid the groundwork for countywide canning demonstrations.

Mrs. Ford, a graduate in home economics, or domestic science as it formerly was called, said there was still much to be done in developing the demonstration plans but, she added, that in all probability there would be as many as 30 small demonstration groups scattered all over the county. The committee, Mrs. Ford said, agreed that this would be more practical, in view of the tire shortage, than holding one big meeting.

Where so many competent demonstrators could be found to conduct these educational meetings, admittedly was a problem. But confidence was expressed that from among the home economics teachers, former teachers and graduates of the course that arrangements could be made.

The committee has just four weeks to work out the details because the demonstrations are not to be held until May 27.

Some of the demonstrations will be held in private homes, some in school buildings and some in other central meeting places, Mrs. Ford said. Some of the meetings will be held in the afternoon and tentative plans call for holding others at night so women who either work or cannot get away from their homes during the day can take advantage of the opportunity to carry on their season's canning against a background of practical demonstrations and educational discussions and lectures.

One of the anticipated highlights of the demonstrations, Mrs. Ford said, would be the distribution of literature and instruction on canning without sugar to meet the war-born sugar rationing situation.

U.S. WAR PRODUCTION AHEAD OF SCHEDULE

Details, However, Are Kept Military Secret

CHICAGO, May 1—(AP)—America built nearly 70 percent more planes last month than it did in the month before Pearl Harbor.

Every requirement of coal for war production and civilian use has been met.

Electric utility companies already have added 3,000,000 kilowatts of generating power to their lines.

The construction industry, on some projects, has erected a building every 32 minutes.

One automobile company has completed an order for 31-ton tanks seven months ahead of time.

Now the American petroleum industry is making more 100 octane gasoline than all the rest of the world combined.

These were the encouraging reports made to the Chamber of Commerce of the United States at its 30th annual meeting today. Necessarily limited by military secrecy, the prepared reports presented one of the most complete pictures of America's war production since the bugle sounded December 8, 1941.

In a session entitled, "Total War—Total Production," representatives of the nine paramount war industries told what was being done to help win the war.

ROAD PROGRAM IN COUNTY HAS BEEN CURTAILED

Work of Putting Blacktop On Highways To Start During Coming Week

The annual blacktop, or tarvia work on county highways, will probably start next week, County Engineer George A. Gregg said Friday in discussing highway activities.

Last year approximately 75 miles of road were treated under the extensive highway program, but this year, due to inability to obtain the full amount of tar desired, the mileage will be far less than that of last year, Gregg indicated.

Plans are being made to start the taring soon after May 1 and to keep at it, as weather permits, until the work is finished. This week the work of oiling

This youthful message was not written to be a hymn, but a creed—poem, sent straight from the heart of a young man to his mother. It is the philosophy of a courageous son who glories in daring, not for himself alone, but for those who are weak and suffering. It is a personal challenge to youth everywhere.

MUST FLOW BOTH WAYS

Commerce between North and South America must not be regarded as a mere war measure, but the United States must prepare for a lifetime partnership, Edward Tomlinson, expert on Latin-American affairs and dean of radio commentators in that field, writes in the current Rotarian magazine.

Economic conflicts are widely publicized. Such items as Argentine beef and corn imports to the United States draw widespread comment. But actually, Tomlinson points out, the two American continents really fit together better than any other group of nations in the world.

A striking example of this is tin. Though Bolivia contains 60 percent of the world's supply of tin ore, Tomlinson emphasizes that "until now there has not been a single important tin smelter or refinery anywhere in the Americas. The British and Dutch-controlled mines of Malaya and the Netherlands Indies . . . furnished the entire world with some 85 percent of its finished product." Now smelters and refineries are being built in the United States, and the flow of tin ore will be paralleled by the return flow of finished articles.

Other examples cited are Brazilian citic acid as a substitute for tung-oil from the Far East, Cuban and Brazilian manganese in place of the dwindling supply from Russia and Scandinavia, Argentine and Chilean tungsten to replace lost sources in Europe, and short wool combs to give the carpet industry its basic materials now available from Argentina and Chile instead of from Mongolia.

By the expansion and diversification of their production and commerce, the Americas can make themselves self-supporting and able to withstand recurring depressions and economic crises.

READY FOR ANY EVENTUALITY

"The indications are that the needs of the Army, the Navy, public health and civilian populations can be met by scientific planning and complete cooperation without any deterioration in the quality of medical education and medical service," said the Journal of the American Medical Association, recently.

War makes heavy demands on American medicine. Thousands of doctors are being called to duty with the military forces. Tens of thousands of doctors are giving a part of their working time to the Selective Service Boards and other military and quasi-military agencies. Workers in arms industries will work longer hours at strenuous labors, and

If a kid wants to get into the Army he heads for West Point. If he wants to get into the navy he heads for Annapolis. There's no such recognized institution waiting for him, though, to teach him military aviation. He's got to learn that the best way he can. Instruction is available enough in the flying of passenger and mail planes and cargo carriers, but I'm assuming that this lad's anxious to specialize on wartime activity, just as a West Point or Annapolis student does on operations of the particular service he's hoping to graduate into.
Air enthusiasts are clamoring that their arm is just as much entitled to a big central university as the Army and Navy are, respectively.
Such experts as Major Alexander D. Seversky and Charles Lindbergh, now in charge of Henry Ford's aviator school, productivity, have spoken for it. In fact, they've hollered. The major's more vocal than Charles, who never does say much, but he's on record.
According to military clouds-men the generality of folk simply haven't yet realized what aviation will do shortly to the art or science of business of up-to-date warfare. Army and Navy professionals are included in the generality. Indeed, growl the cloudlanders, the surface scappers are rather super-unwilling to recognize that they're due to be outclassed soon by flying development.

Centenarian's Broken Bone Knits
SAPULPA, Okla.—(AP)—At 111 years of age "Aunt" Lizzie Devers has made what doctors say is "a remarkable recovery" from auto accident injuries. The day before Thanksgiving Day she suffered a fractured arm and other injuries. The bone knitted and Aunt Lizzie is out of the hospital after five months. Physicians said the knitting of a bone, in a person of that age, was unusual.

Words of Wisdom
In the midst of hopes and cares, of apprehensions and of disquietude, regard every day that dawns upon you as if it was to be your last; then superadded hours, to the enjoyment of which you had not looked forward, will prove an acceptable boon.—Horace.

Hints on Etiquette
Casual, careless chatter can give information to the enemy. Never talk in public about the Army, locations, troop movements, etc., as you may be overheard and your remarks prove the missing link of information that fits into the rest of the spy's picture, making it complete.

Today's Horoscope
If your birthday is today, you have the inherent power and dominating personality to lead others. You are practical, should make a fine executive, but must beware of following rash impulses. The year ahead will bring business and financial prosperity, and you will receive substantial help or inheritance from elderly relatives. Inventions or investments concerning novelties will prove most remunerative. The child who is born on this date will have a flair for employing unique business methods, inventions, beautiful architecture and antiques, and will be very successful. Inheritance is also foreseen.

will require more medical attention than was necessary in peacetime. But, despite all this, experts in the field are convinced that American medicine will meet the crisis with complete success.

That is a fine testimonial to our system of private medicine. Nowhere in the world are doctors given such rigorous training. Nowhere else in the world are there so many doctors. Nowhere else in the world has such astonishing progress been made against the bacterial killers. The average American is healthier than the average citizen of any other country. He lives a longer, happier life. And you can give American medicine much of the credit for that.

The American hospital system has kept pace with medical progress. To meet wartime needs, increased hospital facilities are being planned in many regions. Those who guard this nation's health are doing a magnificent job—and they are ready for all eventualities.

Progress in Treating Various Speech Defects

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.
THERE ARE many different kinds of speech defects and they may be due to several different causes. Within the last thirty years a number of physicians and clinics have taken this up as a specialty and are able to make great improvements in the condition.
One group of causes consists of organic defects. Sometimes this is Dr. Clendening will answer questions of general interest only, and then only through his column.

deafness or partial deafness, sometimes dental defects, cleft palate, etc. These are perhaps the easiest of all to improve because there is such a definite method of approach indicated. Everyone knows the peculiar monotonous tone of speech of the person who has been deaf since childhood, and yet it is astonishing how often parents and teachers both fail to recognize a moderate amount of deafness sufficient to produce this form of speech. In childhood a great deal of this can be corrected by the teaching of lip reading, to which the child is more responsive than the adult.

Correcting Dental Defects
The correction of dental defects is perhaps the most hopeful of all methods of curing abnormal speech. Of course, after the dental defect is corrected, the child has to be re-educated in correct phonation. Nowadays cleft palate brings quite a high percentage of successful results in the hands of a skilled plastic surgeon.

May Be Imitation
In other cases, especially as in lisping, the origin is likely to be imitation. There are few regular functions which we perform which are so easily influenced by imitation as speech.

The third group of speech disorders is usually considered psychogenic. The principal example of this is stammering. In nearly all the clinics for speech re-education and correction, the treatment surmise is that the recent aerial raid over Nippon will dispose of the Axis permanently.

His contention is that the Nips thought they were safe, not having been directly smashed. Now they know better, for the raid on 'em is adequately verified. Their military class is a suicidal crew, but their rank and file are referred to by Jan Masaryk as exceptionally good quitters. Besides, he remarks, they will have to keep their planes at home, for defensive purposes, instead of shooting 'em abroad, for bombing of places like Pearl Harbor.

Let Japan blow up, and Jan's prediction is that Italy'll follow overnight.
Conquered Europe will rebel at the first opportunity, Jan forecasts.
Premier Franco of Spain, hitherto a pro-Axisite, certainly won't want to come in at any such juncture.
Minus Italy and Japan, and with Spain gone floozy, and with all the Balkans and the Low Countries, probably, on the rampage, Jan anticipates a German outbreak of anti-Hitlerism.

And, of course, there still will be the United States, Britain and China and Russia remaining for Adolf, to be dealt with.

Some prognosticators speak of a probable four or five year prolongation of the muss. Jan Masaryk hints at a fizzling out of it quite unexpectedly. The Germans, he observes, are not last ditchers—as witness the last war.

SYNOPSIS
Three young airline hostesses, TIBBY LAKE, sweet and natural; STEENA WINTERS, beautiful and sophisticated; and MARG BAKER, plain, sturdy and direct, share an apartment together in New York, where they are based. A friend of Tibby's.
TOMMY DARE, is spending his first year out of medical school at a clinic in Brooklyn.
Steenas sets her cap for WAYNE COURTRIGHT, wealthy official of the airline.
YESTERDAY: Tibby looks forward with great anticipation to her first flying lesson.
CHAPTER TWELVE
TIBBY NEED not have worried about Wayne Courtright's forgetting the promise he had made to teach her to fly. He looked forward to that tomorrow, when they were to meet at the field, almost as anxiously as she—to his own surprise. He did not know why he should feel so interested in this young girl who had dared to have the temerity to speak up to him—and who had apparently forgotten his existence after that!
"Well," he greeted her that afternoon of the first lesson, "so you came—and on time, too!" His gray eyes smiled their approval, not alone of her promptness, but of Tibby herself. She warranted approval in her trim navy slacks suit, with its white collar and its braided trim that gave it a nautical air, a red 'kerchief, knotted turban fashion, holding her dark curls in place, her face lighted with that shining look.
"I wouldn't have been late for anything!" she assured him so gravely that he smiled, although his masculine vanity was not appeased. He knew it was the prospective lesson that caused such eagerness, not himself.
He resolved that before the lessons were over it would be a different story, forgetting so soon his other resolution, made the day before, that this was to be strictly a non-personal relationship.
This first lesson went very well. Courtright had arranged for a light trainer ship, 40-horsepower, instead of his own powerful 250-horsepower cabin plane. He explained to Tibby that it was best for her to learn to fly a light plane first. Tibby was so thrilled and nervous that she doubted her ability to fly anything. The little ship, especially after riding in the enormous liners, looked like a grotesque sort of insect that would have a will of its own. Could she really learn to take it off the ground and set it down again, all on her own? Could she make it skim over towns and country, rise up to be lost in a bank of clouds, let it fall like a leaf, only to bring it back with intricate delicacy to the proper altitude once more?
"You can do it," Wayne Courtright had almost a canny faculty for reading her thoughts. "As soon as you get the feel of the stick you'll be amazed how simple it will be."
Tibby's color deepened. She said, "I do—sometimes. But the studying has come first. I want to learn all there is to know. All I can," she corrected, smiling shyly at her own

Margarita Makes Crusade for Salvador

By FRANKLIN K. ARTHUR
(Wide World News Service)
HOLLYWOOD — "All right, what do you know about El Salvador?" asks the attractive young lady.
"Well," you start, "it's in central America . . . and . . ."
"That," she says with finality; "is just what I thought."
So for half an hour you listen to glowing descriptive of the tiny republic in the vital isthmus which links North and South America. At the end, you're convinced it must be just one notch below paradise.
One reason the world is in such a state may be that some diplomats frequently are so formal. Pretty girls seldom have been fitted into the international scheme, but it is hard to imagine anyone unwilling to sit down and talk things over with Margarita De Guirola.
Margarita, 24, is Salvador's most ardent enthusiast in Hollywood.
Her office is, of course, unofficial. Unlike the accredited representatives, she need not bother her pretty head about matters of international intrigue. That makes her brand of diplomacy much more effective.
Educated partially in this country and England, Margarita comes from a notable family. Her father is one of Salvador's largest coffee operators. "An uncle is a government minister." She is half English, which may account for her blonde locks. They are something of a shock, if you have unconsciously been assuming that all Latin Americans look like Dolores Del Rio or Lupe Velez.
In a sense, Margarita is a crusader. She is fired with the prospect of making the United States Salvador-conscious. She wants to write about it, lecture about it. She would not object to becoming a movie star, but

Trouble's An Ounce—Or Trouble's A Ton

When it comes to the family's weekly washing, it is a ton of trouble when the housewife attempts to do it herself or even with the help of a maid and gadgets never really help much. It is fuss and bother and it is hard work no matter how it is done, with time taken from other important activities.
When the true cost is counted—the time, supplies, hot water, electricity, investment and depreciation of household equipment—there is nothing saved.
So why not make washday an ounce instead of a ton by sending everything to the professional laundry? Just pack up your troubles in a laundry bag and be smiling fresh and happy when the day is over, instead of wash-weary and worn.

Loyal Daughters Class of McNair Presbyterian Church Observes Eighth Anniversary

On April 30, 1934, the Loyal Daughters Class of McNair Presbyterian Church was organized at the home of Mrs. Bessie Sanders. She suggested the name "Loyal Daughters" which was quickly adopted by the girls and has since served as the appropriate name for the class. Due to illness, Mrs. Sanders was forced to give up her teaching duties a few years ago and the successful career started by her has been expertly carried on by Mrs. Frank Thompson.

On Thursday evening a reunion was held at the home of Mrs. Emmett Backenstoe, marking the eighth anniversary of the organization. Several charter members were included with the nearly forty guests. The spacious lawn of the Backenstoe home was an ideal setting for the bountiful picnic supper served to the young ladies. The guests were seated at small tables at which lovely baskets of violets were centerpieces. Recently the class selected the violet as the class flower. At the center of a large table from which the food was served was a lovely bouquet of tulips, the gift of Mr. Sherman Reader.

A truly hilarious time was enjoyed after the supper hour, and the guests lingered long to enjoy reviewing the pleasant memories of the past eight years, the work accomplished by the group and the parties enjoyed. Each guest left with a renewed determination to make the next eight years even more profitable than the past. Mrs. Sanders was unable to be present.

Spring Party Given Members of Kensington Club

Mrs. Annetta Rowe charmingly filled the role of hostess Thursday when she entertained a beautiful party complimenting the Kensington Club members. The home was lovely in its profusion of lilacs, tulips and blooming shrubs, and the hospitality extended by the hostess were of her always present graciousness, characteristic of her entertaining.

It was a typical May luncheon, with seasonal delicacies featured in the elaborate three course luncheon. One large table in the dining room and three small ones arranged in the spacious living room, seated the guests. The dining table was a picture of spring beauty and its centerpiece rare artistry. A large blue pottery watergarden was filled with crimson tulips of blended shades from the gardens of Mrs. Henry Sparks. The exquisite hand crocheted luncheon set was of a flower-pot design. The smaller tables were similarly decorated.

The luncheon hour was of festive conviviality, and was followed by an enjoyable afternoon of visiting and sewing. Mrs. Ruth Dial and Mrs. Mina Morris assisted Mrs. Rowe.

Maple Grove WSCS

Mrs. Goldie Britton was hostess to the Maple Grove WSCS Wednesday. There were twenty-four members present for the meeting.

During the business session in charge of the president, Mrs. Bessie White, the minutes and roll call were read by the secretary, Mrs. Ruth Moon gave a talk on China, giving a few facts that were very interesting.

During the social hour the hostess served refreshments to the members and guests. Contests led by Mrs. Leora Rowland were also enjoyed during the social hour.

Mrs. Juanita McFadden will entertain the society in May.

Sewing Meet

Seven ladies of the Thursday Club who have been sewing for the Red Cross this winter, met at the home of Mrs. Jess Persinger on Thursday for an all-day sew. Fifty utility bags were made during the day, and ready to give to the Red Cross by late afternoon, which is to be greatly admired.

At noon the ladies went to the Rainbow Room of the Arlington, where delicious lunches were enjoyed.

Two Table Club Met for Pretty Spring Party

Mrs. T. V. Ottinger extended delightful hospitality to her two table bridge club for a most enjoyable evening Thursday, and promoted most entertaining cordialities.

Spring bouquets were arranged at points of vantage throughout the pretty small home of the hostess, so lovely in its interior decorations.

For the spirited and gaily contested bridge game, the prizes of Defense Stamps were presented to Mrs. Robert Dunton and Mrs. Condon Campbell.

The card tables were covered with lovely linen cloths for the delicious salad course served after the game. Centering each table were pretty small vases filled with bleeding heart and violets, an unusual color scheme. Marking each place were pretty gifts for each member, brought by the charming hostess on her recent trip to Florida.

Rag Bagg Dirndl

Out of the rag bag comes colorful patchwork skirt for the teen age girl. She's ripe for fads and frills, and loves anything that seems a little crazy to the grown up at first thought. The truth is that sometimes her fads are practical too. Witness last year's broomstick skirt which required no ironing. This year her yen will be for a dirndl skirt made of the remnants of last year's cotton dresses. She may want a greater variety of patches than she can find at home. In that case she might swap pieces with her girl friends.

Suited for Evening

Daylight evenings have given new life to the dressy, daytime length in a variety of styles. One of the most popular is the simple black faille or moire suit. Underneath the jacket is a very feminine blouse of black lace and net, fussy enough for the next-to-formal dinner.

WAKE UP AMERICA

VERSE I
Wake up! Wake up! America,
we heard the British say
Wake up! Wake up! America,
we need your help today.
Herr Hitler now is coming, he is almost on our shore—
Wake up, wake up, America,
help us as ne'er before.

CHORUS I
Wake up America, help us our cause defend
We've done our best, but are oppressed, on you we must depend

For arms and guns, for food and clothes
For ships, big planes and such Wake up! America, we need you oh! so much.
America did then awake, told
Hitler where to head
I'm sure, dear friend, that the war will end,
The Allies win instead.
America, our land, you are our pride and joy
For you, America, we give our soldier boy.

VERSE II
America rose to the call, and sent them ships and planes,
We put our boys in training, too, in case Herr Hitler gains.
The nations there he may possess and tell them what to do
But dear America, I know that Hitler won't rule you.

CHORUS II
Bring your Japs, Herr Hitler, we will put them on the spot,
We know that our America will show them what is what
In guns and ships, in planes and subs,
In men who do their best
Wake up America, for now has come the test
America is now awake to every peril known,
We feel that we must win the fight,
For God is on His throne.

MUCH INTEREST IN REFERENDUM ON SATURDAY

'Most Important Election of The Year,' Declares Committee Head

A last minute reminder that the wheat marketing quota referendum Saturday, May 2, is the "most important election of the year for farmers," was sounded today by Harry Silcott, chairman of the Fayette County AAA Committee.

"Eligible wheat growers who pass up the chance to register their opinion on the wheat marketing quota Saturday are ignoring an appeal from Uncle Sam at a time when he needs everybody's cooperation," Silcott declared.

He pointed out that upon the passage of the marketing quota hinged the fate of wheat storage loans and the market price of wheat.

"The question at stake is simple," Silcott said. "Do wheat farmers want orderly marketing of the biggest wheat stock in history at a stabilized, fair price; or do they want disorderly marketing, without loans, at the mercy of a glutted, low-price market?"

Silcott asserted that those farmers who charge that the wheat marketing quota system is dictatorial or communistic, should reflect for a moment on who would be hurt most if the marketing quota were defeated this year.

"The farmer stands to suffer most if the quota is defeated," he stated, "but if he refuses to recognize the solid facts on the wheat situation and votes against the quota, he must accept the consequences, whatever they may be."

Silcott was confident that Fayette County farmers would respond to Secretary Wickard's pleas that they "stand behind the quotas... and keep the great wheat-growing industry from being crippled."

"Uncle Sam needs all the 'yes' votes he can get at the referendum Saturday," he said, "and Fayette County farmers will not fail him."

Landlords All Over State May Have To Register

WASHINGTON, May 1—(AP)—Ohio landlords in defense rental area towns soon will be required to register their dwellings, and the entire state will be brought under federal control if necessary to prevent spiraling rents, Price Administrator Leon Henderson said today.

Owners must register with a local rent administrator houses, apartments, trailers and all other property rented for living quarters, Henderson said.

Regulations will be issued later for hotels, rooming and boarding houses in the areas.

Henderson expressed belief that rent control in defense areas would tend to keep rents "reasonable" in other portions of the state but declared the control program would be extended to cover all of Ohio if an upward trend developed.

Registration of Home Sugar Users Starts Monday

USERS TO APPLY AT SCHOOLS FOR RATION BOOKS

Registration To Be Held in Alphabetical Order and At Scheduled Hours

The first step toward the rationing of sugar for home consumption will be taken next Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday when every domestic user must be registered for a War Ration Book.

The registration is to be held at the elementary or grade schools in Washington C. H., the county's villages and rural sections on these four days. The hours for registration, however, are different in the city and the rural sections and villages. So is the arrangement of the alphabetical order of registration.

The registration is by school districts in both the city and rural school systems. Ralph R. Penn, the rationing administrator, suggested that "persons who do not know in which school district they live could ask their neighbors where their children go to school." He made it plain that persons should register at the school in the district in which he lives.

The administrator also emphasized that "it is extremely important that every man, woman and child register regardless of whether they do or do not need sugar," and explained the reason was that "War Ration Book No. 1 may, and no doubt will, be used at a later date should it become necessary to ration other commodities."

Because there are approximately 10,000 persons to be registered in Washington C. H. and 10,000 to be registered in the rural sections of the county and the villages, the administrator said it was important that sugar users apply for their ration books on the day designated and in the alphabetical order prescribed. He explained that "if they apply out of turn, it may be necessary to ask them to wait until the applicants in the building in the proper alphabetical classifications have been served."

Penn will administer the countywide registration with the help of John Leland, assistant administrator in charge of sugar, and the two school superintendents, A. B. Murray, head of the city schools, and W. J. Hilly, head of the rural and village schools, will supervise the registration in the schools under their jurisdiction. The actual work of registration will be handled by the regular teaching corps with the possible addition of some extra help. Penn stressed the "tremendous amount of work" in the registration and expressed the hope and confidence that the public would cooperate.

Washington C. H. Schedule
The registration in Washington C. H. will be held at the five grade schools from 3 o'clock in the afternoon until 10 o'clock at night. Here is the alphabetical order for the city:

Persons whose last names start with A, B, C, D or E are to register on Monday.

Those whose last names start with F, G, H, I, J or K should register on Tuesday.

Those whose last names start with L, M, N, O, P, Q or R are to register on Wednesday.

Those whose last names start with S, T, U, V, W, X, Y, or Z are to register on Thursday.

Those who register at the Central School are to use the North Street entrance.

Rural and Village

The schedule for the rural and village registration is not the same as that for Washington C. H. On Monday Tuesday and Thursday the registration will be held in a stipulated alphabetical order from 4 o'clock in the evening until 9 o'clock at night. But, Thursday has been left open for those who could not conveniently register during the first, second and fourth days of the registration period.

Here is the rural and village schedule:

Monday (4 P. M. to 9 P. M.)—persons whose last names start with A, B, C, D, E, F, G or H.

Tuesday (4 P. M. to 9 P. M.)—persons whose last names start with I, J, K, L, M, N, O, P, or Q.

Wednesday (1 P. M. to 6 P. M.)—those who can not register on the other three days.

Thursday (4 P. M. to 9 P. M.)—those whose last names start with R, S, T, U, V, W, X, Y or Z.

It has been estimated that registration will require about 5 minutes per person and inasmuch as every person must be registered separately, it was pointed out that loss of time could be avoided if the one who registers for a family unit have all the information required (see sample application blank on this page) on a piece of paper.

Too little, too late; too bad! There is still time to buy U. S. Defense Bonds and Stamps.

HERE'S WHAT YOU MUST FILL OUT TO GET SUGAR

Applicants for sugar rationing books are urged by the Office of Price Administration to study carefully the application card, and have the correct answers when they register on May 4, 5, 6 and 7. A separate application must be made for every person for whom a ration book is issued, but only one member of each family unit is to appear at the nearest elementary school to apply for all members of the family.

This is the biggest registration job ever undertaken in so limited a time in the United States. Within four days the nation, 130,000,000 men, women and children, will be registered and will receive their ration books. To accomplish so big a job in that short space of time, the Office of Price Administration, which administers rationing, is urging every applicant for a ration book to come prepared with accurate information to all questions which the registrars will ask when filling out the application form.

If you answer these questions promptly, OPA estimates it will take only four minutes to fill out this form. One and a quarter school teachers will serve as registrars.

1. Applicants should come prepared with a list of the members of their families, giving the exact name of each.

2. An exact description of each member of the family unit, giving the height, weight, color of eyes, color of hair, age and sex of each one.

3. The person who registers for the family unit must state his or her exact relationship to each member of it.

4. It is necessary to know to the pound just how much sugar is in the possession of the household. The amount of sugar will be divided by the number of people in the family units and stamps will be torn out by the registrar for all sugar in excess of two pounds per person. If more than four stamps have to be removed, issuance of the book will be withheld until later.

One—and only one—member of each family is to go to the elementary school nearest to the person's residence to register and to apply for ration books for the whole family, OPA emphasizes. Single people not members of a family unit, even if they board with a family, must apply for themselves. A family unit has been defined by the Office of Price Administration as "a group of two or more individuals consisting of all persons who are living together in the same household, who are related by blood or marriage."

Questions and Answers on Sugar Rationing

COLUMBUS, May 1.—(P)—Rationing of sugar comes to Ohio next week. If you are uncertain about how to get your ration book and sugar, the following questions and answers may assist you.

Q.—Why is it necessary to ration sugar?

A.—War is cutting off the supply of commodities the United States usually imports from other parts of the world. The shortage of sugar is not yet so acute that this commodity must be restricted entirely. But, the shortage is sufficiently great so that a control must be placed on the consumption for non-war purposes.

Q.—What is the purpose of rationing?

A.—Rationing assures two things: That the nation's war needs for sugar will be met and met first; and that all the sugar available after that will be fairly divided between all the civilian users in the United States.

Q.—Who may apply for sugar?

A.—Every person living in the United States except members of the armed forces who regularly receive rations in kind and persons confined to public or private institutions and whose meals are furnished by such institution.

Q.—Who is the correct person to apply for a book?

A.—Persons of any age who are not a part of any family unit. A responsible person must apply for persons under 18 years of age who are not self-supporting. Persons who are applying for every member of a family unit. Such applicants must be 18 years of age or over, or married persons if under 18.

Q.—What about college students?

A.—If a person 18 years of age or over has left home to attend college, he should apply for and get his own book in the town where he is residing during the school year. His father or mother must not apply for him as a member of their family unit. On the other hand if a person under 18 years of age has left home to attend school or college and is not a member of a family unit his father, mother, or legal guardian must file an application for him.

Q.—What about persons who eat all of their meals in restaurants?

A.—A person is entitled to a war ration book in spite of the fact that he may eat all his meals at a restaurant, boarding house or similar place and has no present intention of buying any sugar. The war ration book may later be used for some product which may have to be rationed.

Q.—How do I proceed to obtain my ration book which enables me to buy sugar?

A.—There will be a war ration book for everyone. You will report to an elementary school in your school district during the four-day registration period beginning May 4 and continuing through May 7 inclusive. War ration books will not be given to any person possessing at the time of registration a supply of sugar amounting to more than 6 pounds. Any person having a supply of sugar in excess of two pounds but no more than six pounds will have stamps removed from his book at the time of registration.

Q.—At what rate will the stamps be removed for each excess pound?

A.—At the rate of one stamp for each excess pound. Thus a person having six pounds of sugar at the time of registration would have four stamps removed from his book. No stamps will be removed for the first two pounds but four stamps will be removed for the next four pounds.

Q.—How much sugar can I get with each stamp?

A.—You may buy one pound of sugar with each of the first four stamps.

Q.—Where may war ration stamps be used?

A.—War ration stamps may be used in any retail store in the United States.

Q.—Can I get the same amount of sugar with each stamp?

A.—Not necessarily. The ration of sugar may be changed from time to time according to the total supply of sugar in the country. The ration for each stamp will be publicly announced by the government.

Q.—How long is each stamp good for?

A.—Stamp No. 1 will be valid during the period from May 5 to May 16; stamp No. 2 will be valid from May 17 to 30; stamp No. 3 from May 31 to June 13 and stamp No. 4 from June 14 to June 27.

Q.—Can I save up the stamps and get all my sugar at one time?

A.—No. Each stamp is good for only the announced period.

Q.—Do we each have to take our war ration books in person to the store in order to buy sugar?

A.—No. Anyone may take your war ration book to buy sugar provided they are buying sugar for you. The mother or the father, or any one of the children, or anyone connected with a family may take some or all the war ration books to the grocer to buy the entire household's supply of sugar.

Q.—Suppose I do not buy sugar at all?

A.—There is no occasion for you to buy sugar except as you need it. But keep your war ration book carefully. It may, at a later time, be necessary to use it for other commodities if they are rationed.

Q.—May I tear out a stamp and take it to the store to buy sugar?

A.—No. You must take the war ration book with you and tear out the stamp in the presence of the storekeeper or his employees.

Q.—Suppose I order sugar by telephone?

A.—Before the person making delivery can give you the sugar you must show him the war ration book, or the family's ration books, and in his presence tear out enough stamps—not more than one from each book—to cover the amount of sugar you have ordered. He cannot give you more sugar than your stamps allow even if it has been sent. He would have to take the balance back to the store. Give the person delivering the sugar the stamps you tear out of the war ration books.

Q.—What if I need more sugar than I get with my war ration book?

A.—If it is absolutely necessary for you or your family to have more sugar for home canning, illness or some other special reason, you may go to your local rationing board. They will decide whether you can have this sugar, and how much you can have. They may then issue to you a special certificate permitting you to buy a specified amount of sugar for a specified purpose. You will not need to use the war ration book or books in buying sugar with this certificate.

Q.—What do I do if my war ration book is lost, stolen, destroyed or mutilated?

A.—Report the facts to the local rationing board at once.

Q.—Can I send my war ration book home to my family to use?

A.—No. Your war ration book is issued to be used by or for you. The sugar it permits you to buy is intended to be used by you or by the family of which you are a member and with whom you live.

Q.—Do these war ration stamps entitle me to get sugar for nothing?

A.—No. They only entitle you to buy sugar. They determine the amount of sugar you or anyone else may buy.

Q.—Do I have to buy sugar because I have a war ration book?

A.—No. The war ration book gives you the right to buy certain amounts of sugar. If you do not need sugar do not buy it.

Q.—If my family has enough stamps can we buy more than 2 pounds of sugar at a time?

A.—Yes. You can buy as much sugar as your family's stamps entitle them to in the period during which these stamps are valid.

Q.—I make candy and cakes and sell them to make money. How can I get sugar I need for these?

A.—Apply and register at the local rationing board. They may give you a special certificate to use to get the sugar you are allowed for your business.

Q.—I live in a boarding house. May I have a book just the same?

A.—Yes. You may.

CENSORSHIP IS CLAMPED UPON NEWS OF DRAFT

Ban Against Giving Number Of Selectees Sent and Where Sent

Because the censorship has been clamped upon several phases of the Selective Service, no further news as to the number of registrants sent from Fayette County can be published, and no information given as to their point of induction, under a new censorship ruling announced by the State Selective Service System.

The new announcement says in part:

"The only restriction concerning the public service information relating to quotas, calls, and induction stations are those imposed by the War Department to prevent revealing information that might be of aid to the enemy.

"There is no ban on photographs of selectees. The restrictions apply to any statement as to how many men are being sent at any specified time to any specified place, or as to how many men are being called for delivery at any particular time by any particular board."

It is stated that it is now considered good policy not to print the names of selectees until after the entire group has been examined and accepted at the Induction Station."

As result of the new information given out regarding the censorship, it is indicated that the Fayette County Draft Board will not give out any additional list of names, or number to be sent, and that names of those accepted will be given after the physically unfit are weeded out at the final examination.

CHANGE IN HOURS OF SCHOOL LIKELY

Busses May Have To Be Used For Defense Workers

COLUMBUS, May 1—(P)—School children in Ohio's defense areas may not have to get out of bed in the dark, early morning hours to be on time for classes next winter.

George McConaughy, chairman of the new state defense transportation committee, said today a plan to use privately-owned school busses more extensively for carrying workers to war jobs would require opening of schools later or changing plant working schedules.

Hours when employees change shift in most defense plants practically coincide with present opening and closing hours of schools, making it impossible for drivers to transport both groups, he explained.

Fans Gathering for Kentucky Derby in High Spirits Despite War

By ORLO ROBERTSON
LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 1—(AP)—Derbytown began to look more like itself today as the butcher, the baker and the candlestick maker streamed into this horse-minded Ohio River city for the 68th running of the Kentucky Derby.

Although there was a decided increase in the tempo of arriving trains, buses, airplanes and automobiles, there were indications that the crowd for tomorrow's $75,000 classic at Churchill Downs probably would not come up to those pre-war derbies. In lieu of an official announcement attendance has been estimated from 60,000 to 100,000 in recent years.

But a few thousand persons either way won't make much difference when the band strikes up "My Old Kentucky Home" and the pick of the nation's three-year-olds starts the parade to the barrier at the head of the stretch at 5:30 P. M. (central war time).

Additional seats again have been installed but no matter what is done in that respect there never is enough room for all who want to see the event that Col. Matt Winn built up from just another horse race into the country's greatest turf spectacle.

Derby prices went into effect throughout most of the city today but that made no difference to the outlanders. Their pockets were bulging with folding money auguring well for shattering the parimutuel record of $2,096,613 established in 1926.

With a field of 17 expected to be named through the entry box today, visitors and natives alike had one common question—"who's your derby choice?"

For the most part the answers either were Mrs. Payne Whitney's power-house entry of Devil Diver and Shut Out, Ben Whitaker's well-conditioned Requested or the Texas combination of Valdina Orphan and Hollywood from Emerson Woodward's Valdina Farm.

Here and there, mostly from his home sector, good word was spoken for Al Sabath's Chicago-owned Alsab, the 1941 juvenile champ that has yet to win a race this year.

Sweep Swinger, a skinny, lanky colt from T. D. Buhl's Detroit barn, was liked by others, as were Pinkie Grimes-With Regards, winner of seven straight races, and Warren Wright's Sun again.

All the others were lightly regarded.

ALLEN'S HOMER ACCOUNTS FOR ONLY WHS RUNS

Visitors from McClain Give Lions Second Set-back in Five Games This Spring

NEW YORK, May 1—Latest report from Louisville is that if there's a "sleeper" in the derby this year he must still be asleep. . . Probably the only reason the 700 newspapermen who are down to cover the race haven't made 700 different selections is that there aren't that many horses in the race. . . Our informants offer Sweep Swinger and Apache as their feed-box specials but we can't help wondering if there weren't some reason the Texas folks were pouring their dough into the future books on Hollywood. Those Irish horses are bred for distance and from here it seems that a mile and a quarter may be a long way for some of the derby nags to travel. . . Eddie Arcaro definitely has selected Devil Diver as his mount. . . Whirlaway will stay at the Downs long enough to pay his respects to the winner and then will be shipped to Pimlico Sunday to run in the Dixie.

Up at Berlin, N. H. recently, a gent named Joe Wood decided to investigate the game of bowling. On Wednesday he rolled 25 games; Thursday he increased his production to 33; Friday it was 38 and on Saturday he bowled 53 for a total 149 games. He rolled 4,320 balls down the alley and while there's no record of his scores, it's certain that Wood knocked down a lot of wood.

Ladies Lose To Gentlemen On the Alleys

The gentlemen of the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. bowling party were not exactly gentlemen Thursday night, but they did get a measure of revenge when they won the first and last games of their match from the ladies and held a ten-point edge in the 2,068 to 2,058 in the total score.

The ladies have been humiliating the gentlemen with regularity all winter.

Daisy—no last names were recorded on the score sheet—again was the high scorer with games of 172, 178 and a big 221 for a total of 571. Not one of the other nine on the alleys could even come close to that score.

Travis Top Slugger Of Army Camp Team

CAMP WHEELER, Ga., MAY 1—(AP)—Cecil Travis, former Washington Senator batting star, is leading his Camp Wheeler teammates with a .72 average in ten games this season.

A private in the special services branch, Travis has hit safely 17 times in 36 trips to bat for the Camp Wheeler nine. He is leading the team in runs scored with 15. He hit .359 for Washington last year.

The Blue Lion baseball team was handed its second defeat in five games this season when the Tigers from McClain High School in Greenfield pushed over 4 runs in the first inning, more than enough to win the game played at Wilson Field here Thursday afternoon.

Bob Allen's lusty home run over the left field fence, with Whited on base, gave the WHS boys their only scores of the game which ended with the count 8 to 2, in favor of the Greenfielders, at the end of seven innings.

In the first inning for McClain, Hogan Johnson was on the mound for the Lions. The Greenfield team batted a complete round with Johnson walking three. However, along with the other boys on the bases four of them scored which gave them an outstanding lead. The last half of the first was just a merry-go-round for WHS and they went down in order.

In the second McClain scored two more runs which gave them a lead of 6-0. Whited was up for the Lions and got to second on a double. Bob Allen came along next and hit a homer over the left field fence to score Whited ahead of him. This brought the score up to 6 to 2. Tillitt also got a double in this inning but never had a chance to score. These three hits were among the four allowed in the game. Mark got a hit in the fifth.

The third, fourth, fifth and sixth were scoreless for both teams and McClain still led by four runs.

During the seventh Greenfield added two more runs to their score. The last of the seventh ended with no more runs for the Lions and they lost by the score of 8 to 2.

Reds Battle To Keep Out Of Last Place

CINCINNATI, May 1—(AP)—Having failed signally to stop the Brooklyn Dodgers, the Cincinnati Reds start a brave attempt today to see if they can stay out of last place in the National League by stopping the Philadelphia Phillies, who are only a game and a half behind them.

Elmer Riddle and Johnny Podgajny are the pitchers.

The Dodgers completed their three-game sweep yesterday with an 11-8 victory, mainly because of Dolph Camilli's second homer of the day and his fourth of the series, with two on in the ninth. Camilli knocked in six runs in all.

Schoolboy Rowe Sold to Dodgers

DETROIT, May 1—(AP)—The Detroit Tigers announced today sale of Lynwood (Schoolboy) Rowe, 30-year-old right-hander, to the Brooklyn Dodgers for an undisclosed amount of cash.

Rowe was in his tenth season in the American League and this year had won one and lost none.

The six-foot, four-inch schoolboy reports to the National League club immediately.

Rowe won 105 games and lost 62 with the Tigers, but in recent years has been somewhat less effective than the Detroit pennant seasons of 1934 and 1935. He shares the league record of 16 consecutive victories achieved in 1934 while winning 24 games.

Sport Short Cut Urged For Athletes in Army

FT. RILEY, Kas., May 1—(AP)—To eliminate much lost time from training, Capt. Leroy Munday, special service officer, has suggested army teams be allowed to participate in semi-pro state tournaments without qualifying in sectional meets.

In a letter to the semi-pro baseball congress, Munday also urged that professional players now in service be permitted to play.

Lions Lose SC Track Title As Circleville Wins Meet

The Washington C. H. High School tracksters took second place in the South Central League track meet Thursday evening and thus lost the league title which they have held for the past three years.

The Circleville team took over the championship with a total of 70 points. Washington C. H., under the coaching of Bob Terhune, placed second with 51 points and Wilmington trailed behind the others with 29.

Greenfield and Hillsboro do not have track teams this year and took no part in the meet.

Washington C. H. took 5 firsts, 5 seconds, 5 thirds and 4 fourths. The Circleville team took first place in 9 different events, 5 seconds, 4 thirds, 3 fourths. This was the best record of the evening. Wilmington didn't take any firsts, but got 3 seconds, 4 thirds and 3 fourths.

The winner was determined by the number of points each team had. First place gave 5 points, second gave 3, third gave 2 and fourth gave 1 point.

Following are the results of each event:

Shot Put—first, Shea, C, 35'; second, Callendar, WCH, third, Sabine, C, and fourth Shultz, WCH.

Pole vault—first, Hatz, C, 10'; second, Rudduck, WCH, and tied for third, Dade, C, and Kinney, W.

120 Yds. Hurdles—first, Morris, WCH, 17.5; second, Dade, C; third, Daniel, W, and fourth, Smallwood, C.

Meers Tough; Another Win For Brewers

(By The Associated Press)
Russell Meers, a fancy 170 pounds of left-handed pitching ability, was sent by the Chicago Cubs to do a seasoning stint with the Milwaukee Brewers this spring. Thus far Meers has turned in three victories and no defeats for the Brewers, who are leading the American Association.

He still is troubled by his old bugaboo, wildness, which caused him to lead the Southern Association in issuing bases on balls last season, while hurling for Nashville. But he still is wielding his strikeout ball.

He won yesterday's contest between Milwaukee and Toledo—a relief role. The score was 6 to 5.

Russ walked three men in his two and one-third inning task yesterday to run his base on balls total to 22 for 27 innings of work. He has fanned 15 men and yielded 20 hits and 9 runs over that same period.

Milwaukee took a full game lead over second place Kansas City, which was idle yesterday but hoped to play Columbus in the season's first night game tonight.

"He has speed, a good arm and fine prospects," Manager Frisch said of the 24-year-old native of Lowell, Mass.

Expensive Rookie Kept by Pirates

PITTSBURGH—(AP)—Rookie Johnny Barrett, the "Flying Irishman" with the Boston accent whose speed caught the eye of Frankie Frisch, is a full-fledged member of the Pittsburgh Pirates at a cost of more than $20,000.

Attracted by Barrett's propensity for hitting triples as well as his fleet legs, the Pirates bid against stiff competition to get him an option from Hollywood of the Pacific Coast League last September. The agreement was that if Johnny were taken on permanently May 1, Hollywood would receive additional cash and a player.

The BUCS announced the southpaw outfielder would stay "for keeps." The club hasn't decided what player to offer Hollywood, but if none is accepted by the Pacific Coasters, a third bundle of cash will be paid instead.

"He has speed, a good arm and fine prospects," Manager Frisch said of the 24-year-old native of Lowell, Mass.

Night Sports Fade in East

Giants and Dodgers Have 14 Games Scheduled for Lights And Then, There Are Those Prize Fights Also

By AUSTIN BEALMEAR
NEW YORK—(AP)—When the New York Giants and the Brooklyn Dodgers return from their tour of the west, they may find their parks blacked out but they won't be the only ones in the dark.

Billy Conn may find himself facing Joe Louis in a ring illuminated by nothing stronger than the moon—a task as difficult as it is dangerous.

And the fans themselves don't know whether to plan on watching the stars of sport or those in the sky during the coming summer nights.

The prospect of a total blackout for all night sports attractions scheduled out of doors in New York resulted from the "dim-out" regulations which went into effect April 28.

The army had signified no objections to baseball or other sports at night, but it turned the actual enforcement of the dim-out order over to local authorities and the lights here went out in a hurry.

Police Commissioner Lewis J. Valentine indicated immediately that all sports requiring artificial illumination would be banned in New York for the duration of the war.

The order will affect baseball and other sports at night, Valentine said, since the lights can be seen far out at sea.

The commissioner declined to amplify his statement, but his action had the official backing of the army. Maj. Gen. I. J. Phillips, commander of the 2nd corps area, said the enforcement of the dim-out regulations had been "placed in the hands of the state and local authorities."

New York's move toward prohibition of night sports apparently was the first in that direction and there was no immediate indication that other east coast cities planned to follow suit.

The Giants and the Dodgers still have more than three weeks to find some way to cut down the overhead glare of their lights, convince Valentine that the illumination doesn't help the enemy, or give up night baseball for the duration.

Both teams have 14 night games scheduled at home this season. The New York Yankees play no night games at home.

The two national league teams already have lighting engineers studying methods of shielding the lights so that they won't be visible more than a mile at sea.

If Valentine's statement becomes an order, the lights will not only be cut off for all regularly scheduled night baseball games and prize fights but also for the major league all-star game at the polo grounds July 6.

Only two weeks ago, the baseball advisory council changed the all-star contest from day to night in an effort to attract a larger crowd.

enough to make them worth their weight in gold, or almost. Before the price setback of the last few days, hogs were bringing about the best prices since 1926. Yesterday's top above $14 a hundredweight in Chicago still was enough to cheer the farmer.

Trade reports indicated a cold, wet spring during the first part of the normal farrowing period resulted in larger than expected mortality of spring pigs in some states like Indiana and Iowa.

However, improved weather and the fact that breeding may have been delayed in many areas is expected to reverse this picture.

Preliminary estimates indicated 28 percent more sows were to farrow this spring than last year. This would produce a spring pig population estimated around 62,000,000 head, or about 7,500,000 more than the previous record established in 1937.

the day before this international situation is over."

Acknowledging that one of the proposed reductions might by itself be but a "drop in the bucket," Tydings added that victory would come to the nation which in the end had "the most drops left in the bucket."

Tydings announced that he would ask the Senate to eliminate from the bill authority usually given to most federal agencies for purchase of newspapers, periodicals and similar supplies, an item he estimated cost $40,000 a year.

The library of Congress, he declared, had available all newspapers and periodicals which might be needed.

As the bill passed the House it contained appropriations totaling $2,096,048,875, compared with $3,354,038,224 for the current year and budget estimates of $2,109,887,431 for the approaching fiscal year.

As it came from committee, the total was $2,125,985,890, which appeared as an increase over the House figure and over the budget estimates despite committee reductions.

GRAIN MARKET NEWS SUMMARY

CHICAGO, May 1.—(AP)—Wheat prices rose as much as 2 cents a bushel today, following announcement of the 1942 loan rates, which are 16 cents higher on the farm and 17 cents higher on a Chicago basis than a year ago.

Buying attributed to previous short sellers and to mills stimulated the advance. Closing quotations for July futures, the earliest contract on which new wheat can be delivered, were about 8 cents below the loan rate for grain stored here.

Although late profit taking reduced wheat gains somewhat, prices closed 7 1/2-1 1/2c higher than yesterday, May 1.20 1/2-1/2, July 1.23 1/2-1/2. Corn was 1 1/2-1 1/2c higher, May 85c, July 87 1/2-3/4c; oats 1/2-3/4c up; rye 7 1/2-1 1/4c higher; soybeans were up 3 to 4 cents at one stage due to short covering.

RESTRICTIONS IN TELEPHONE INSTALLATIONS

Further Conservation of Materials Sought by the War Board

A statement relating to a new War Production Board order further restricting the use in the telephone industry of materials essential to the war effort has just been received by Fred Rost, the company's commercial manager for this exchange.

Manager Rost pointed out that this was the second order issued by the War Production Board, which restricted installation of telephone facilities.

The new War Production Board order further restricts the use by telephone companies of materials essential to the war effort. It forbids construction for the installation of new business or residence telephones if more than a minimum of construction work is involved, except for service required in the war effort or for public health and safety. It orders much wider use of party-line service.

A previous order restricted new installations of residence extensions, the replacement of manual private branch exchange switchboards by dial, the replacement of desk stands by hand sets.

Persons who have telephones now will not be affected by changes, except that in some places and under some circumstances they might have to change to party-line service and they cannot get extension telephones if they do not have them now, it is pointed out.

People who have no telephones and want them, will be supplied wherever there are enough lines and switchboards, but generally, where new construction would be necessary, no service can be provided.

Australia rather than India, as these authorities see the situation, is Japan's primary military problem at this time. Since the rapid increase of American forces in Australia probably would make a frontal assault too costly even for the Japanese to contemplate, their logical move would be to attempt a blockade.

In Australia, Gen. Sir Thomas Blamey, Allied land commander under Gen. Douglas MacArthur, warned that the Japanese were preparing to strike anew in the Anzac zone.

Laying Your Car Up For the Duration? - Here Are Helpful Hints

Laying your car up for the duration? If so the Bureau of Standards suggested today that you do these things:

Wash the car, preferably with steam, wax it, lubricate it thoroughly with oil sprayed on chassis and underbody, change oil, remove all gasoline from tank and feedlines, drain radiator, stoff exhaust and other engine openings to keep out insects, remove radiator hose connections, and grease battery connections.

The battery may be left in place, but it will deteriorate and probably should be sold. If storage place is cool and dark, the tires may be left on the car but should be deflated and the car set up on blocks.

Upholstery should be protected from dirt and moths in the same way as furniture.

Payroll Deduction Plan Urged for Buying Bonds

While plans made by the Fayette County War Savings Bonds and Stamps committee call for a pledge campaign on the part of every person in Fayette County who can possibly invest in War Bonds and Stamps each month, the payroll deduction plan is being heavily stressed in the campaign now under way in the county.

Judge H. M. Rankin, county chairman, said Friday:

"The success of the War Savings program depends upon the universal installation of the payroll-savings-plan and the universal participation in it by the income earning citizens of our County."

"All employers of two or more persons are expected to install this plan. Where employees have been asked to join in such a plan they have gladly done so. In the near future a list of establishments where this plan has been put into operation will be published together with the percentage of participation. There are now at least a dozen cases where the employees have joined one hundred percent."

HUGE FURNACE FOUNDRY PLANT NEARLY READY

Await Completion of the Wiring Before Plant Is Operated

When the wiring at the huge plant of the Furnace Foundry Company, at the southern edge of the city, is completed within a short time, the big plant will be ready to start production, it was indicated Friday by Leo P. Fedigan, president and general manager of the company.

The buildings are now complete and virtually all of the machinery and other equipment is in place. Priority material has held up the installation of the wiring, it seems, but this is to be completed within a short time.

A great deal of wiring is necessary in the four buildings which form the plant here.

At the present time work on grading about the buildings, preparatory to landscaping, is under way.

Offices have been moved into the front portion of the north building, and increased activity about the offices is apparent as the approach of production draws near.

Stressing the necessity of Fayette County citizens in all walks of life doing their part toward winning the war by buying bonds and stamps, Judge Rankin said:

"The residents of Fayette County must buy $38,500 worth of Bonds and Stamps in May, and a heavy quota every month if America is going to win this war."

"These are not mere estimates, not guesses, not 'wouldn't-it-be-nice-to-do' figures, but the absolute minimum required for Victory."

"The nation's quota is $1,000,000 a month. We've got to do our part."

This announcement was made by Judge Rankin immediately after being notified by Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau that the establishment of quotas for the nation, "placed an added responsibility on every American citizen."

"We have been telling Treasury officials: 'Let us know how much you want us to do, and the citizens of our districts will do it. Set a figure, and we will beat it,'" Judge Rankin said.

"We now know what is expected of us patriotic citizens in the war effort. I expect the citizens of Fayette County to meet this challenge to their loyalty to the men on our fighting fronts. Not only will we equal our quota, we will go over the top every month, throughout the duration."

County quotas throughout the United States will be based on the average sales since inauguration of the Bond Campaign May 1, 1942, he explained.

"The total sales throughout the country have averaged $44,000,000 per month. For the present, this will be regarded as 44 per cent of quota. The national goal is $1,000,000,000 per month," Judge Rankin said; "we must also regard our past record as only 44 per cent adequate. Our quota will gradually be stepped up during May and June. From July on, we will be called upon to meet a quota double the amount of our previous sales. We can do it. We will."
